Chris Abigt

Artist Chris Abigt's love for art began at a very young age. Throughout her teen years, Chris was influenced by her appreciation and love of nature and the outdoors. She studied art at the University of Iowa and began giving private and small group art lessons. Chris finds great pleasure in a young student recognizing their own artistic side. Working in many mediums, Chris uses light to emphasize the color, depth, fullness, life, and detail of her subjects. Her greatest inspiration comes from the beauty of a simple day wandering about the countryside, seeing the way the landscape unfolds beneath the sky. Chris likes to show all the simple yet often overlooked pleasures in the way sunlight plays with the trees and flowers to bring them to life, and in children finding their own uncomplicated worlds. Her work has appeared in many shows, and her original artwork hangs in many private collections throughout the country. Chris lives in Ottumwa, IA.
