Suzanne Millius

Suzanne Millius is an artist and illustrator who was born and raised in Dubuque, Iowa; a charming city that borders the majestic banks of the mighty Mississippi river. Growing up with such influences as music, art, and fashion, she studied fine arts at Clarke College, majoring in painting and art history. By day she is a full time graphic designer, married to a musician and poet—together raising their son. Suzanne is a free spirit who enjoys life's adventures to the fullest. Besides spending every waking minute drawing and painting, she also enjoys traveling, running, good wine and import beer, playing chess, and spending time with her dog, Tucker James Rosenquist.
